

Must Read Topic: French Poststructuralist and Postmodernist Thought by Prof. Alan Cholodenko

Essential Readings on French Poststructuralist and Postmodernist Thought

#	Cover	Title	Author	Abstract	Call Number
1		Of Grammatology	Jacques Derrida	This foundational text introduces deconstruction, challenging traditional assumptions about the relationship between speech and writing, and questioning the very structure of language and meaning.	410 218
2		The Evil Demon of Images	Jean Baudrillard	Baudrillard examines the power of images in contemporary society, arguing that they have become more real than reality itself, leading to a state of hyperreality.	791.43 229

Must Read Topic: French Poststructuralist and Postmodernist Thought by Prof. Alan Cholodenko

#	Cover	Title	Author	Abstract	Call Number
3		Mass Mediauras: Form, Techniques, Media	Samuel Weber	This collection of essays explores the intersections of media, technology, and form, offering critical insights into the nature of mass media and its cultural implications.	302.23 145
4		The Illusion of Life: Essays on Animation	Alan Cholodenko (Ed.)	A pioneering collection theorizing animation through poststructuralist and postmodernist approaches, offering twelve essays that illuminate the nature of animated films.	741.58 10
5		The Illusion of Life II: More Essays on Animation	Alan Cholodenko (Ed.)	Continuing the work of its predecessor, this volume presents sixteen essays engaging with post-World War II animation in Japan and the United States, exploring the expanded field of animation including its relation to live action, video games, and digital media.	791.4334 13

Must Read Topic: French Poststructuralist and Postmodernist Thought by Prof. Alan Cholodenko

#	Cover	Title	Author	Abstract	Shelf Location
6	The cover features a black and white photograph of a person's face, possibly a woman, with the text "IMAGE MUSIC TEXT" and "ROLAND BARTHES" at the bottom.	Image-Music-Text	Roland Barthes	A collection of essays exploring the interplay between visual, musical, and textual sign systems. Barthes investigates how meaning is constructed and deconstructed in cultural texts.	001.56 14 A
7	The cover features a black and white illustration of people in a prison setting, with the title "DISCIPLINE & PUNISH" and "THE BIRTH OF THE PRISON" by MICHEL FOUCAULT.	Discipline and Punish: the birth of the prison	Michel Foucault	A seminal analysis of the transformation of power from public punishment to internalized discipline. Foucault traces the birth of modern prisons and surveillance.	364.60944 2 A
8	The cover is red with the text "cinema 1" and "the movement image" by GILLES DELEUZE.	Cinema 1: The Movement-Image	Gilles Deleuze	Deleuze analyzes classical cinema through Bergsonian philosophy, emphasizing movement and sensory-motor links. He redefines how images generate thought and affect.	791.4301 41

Must Read Topic: French Poststructuralist and Postmodernist Thought by Prof. Alan Cholodenko

#	Cover	Title	Author	Abstract	Shelf Location
9		Cinema 2: The Time-Image	Gilles Deleuze	A continuation into modern cinema, this volume explores how time disrupts narrative logic. Deleuze theorizes a cinema of contemplation and fractured temporality.	791.4301 70
10		Powers of Horror	Julia Kristeva	Kristeva's psychoanalytic theory of abjection explores how horror destabilizes identity and language. She blends literary analysis with Lacanian theory.	844.91 K9291 1

Must Read Topic: French Poststructuralist and Postmodernist Thought by Prof. Alan Cholodenko

#	Cover	Title	Author	Abstract	Shelf Location
11		Eisenstein on Disney	Sergei Eisenstein	A surprising exploration of Disney through the lens of Soviet montage theory. Eisenstein praises animation's potential for transformation and symbolic power.	791.4375 69
12		Before Mickey: The Animated Film 1898-1928	Donald Crafton	This historical study uncovers the roots of animation before Disney's dominance. Crafton details early techniques, styles, and cultural influences in animation.	791.4334 61 A

Must Read Topic: French Poststructuralist and Postmodernist Thought by Prof. Alan Cholodenko

#	Cover	Title	Author	Abstract	Shelf Location
13		Pure War	Paul Virilio,	In Pure War , Paul Virilio explores the militarization of society and the fusion of war and technology in modern life. He argues that contemporary civilization is increasingly shaped by a state of perpetual preparation for conflict, blurring the line between peace and war.	303.66 7 Schaeffer Library